RETURN
to Eden

GET TO KNOW THE WOMEN OF OUR CHURCH FAMILY!

All ladies are invited—whether young adult, single/single again, married, or widowed—to our Annual Women's Retreat for a great time of learning, fun, and fellowship!

Kenbrook is an ideal place to “retreat” from the busyness of life. It is located just minutes away from the city of Lebanon.

Return To Eden

In our time together, we will focus on who we were designed to be as women, what went wrong, and how we can recover our original design. Our text will be the first three chapters of Genesis. Our study will answer three fundamental questions: Who is God? Who am I? Why do I need Him?

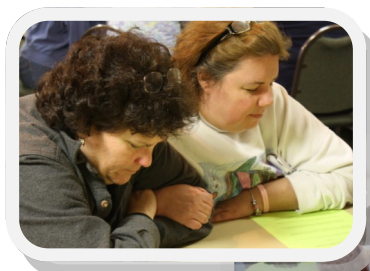

Join us for an interactive time of exploring God's unique design for women, leaving us with a fresh outlook on ourselves and our role in the world around us.

MEET OUR SPEAKER

Jennifer Rajnic hails from Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, where she lives with her husband Scott of 13 years, and their two children, Sophia (8) & Seth (5). She graduated from Messiah College with a BS in Education & Wheaton College Graduate School with an MA in Intercultural Studies, but credits her parents for her insatiable love of learning.

After spending several years working with students in East Africa (Kenya, Tanzania, and Uganda), Jennifer returned to the U.S. to invest in her local church. She continues to use her love of learning & teaching at her church, L.C.B.C. Manheim, where she volunteers as the Teaching & Curriculum Coordinator for the She Studies program.
